1 Leading graduate employer

SP Setia executive vice-president Kow Choong Ming (right) receiving the Malaysia's 100 Leading Graduate Employers (The Most Popular Graduate Recruiters by Career Sector) for Property and Construction Award from Infrastructure University Kuala Lumpur marketing and communications division deputy director CK Chow. The award presentation was held at the annual Malaysia's Leading Graduate Employers Awards, organised by GTI Media Asia and Trendence, Europe's leading research institute specialising in employer branding, personnel marketing and recruiting. Kow said the award was a testament to the continuous efforts of SP Setia in improving its policies and practices to maintain a culture of excellence, thereby ensuring a sustainable career path for every member of Team Setia.
