

Headline	Coming together as one happy family
Media Title	The Star
Date	28 January 2017
Section	NA
Page Number	NA

Coming together as one happy family

Developer treats buyers and guests to fun games and entertainment at grand reunion celebration

By EMILY K. emilyk@thestar.com.my

THE Setia City Convention Centre came alive with energy and laughter as property developer SP Setia held its third and grandest Perfect Reunion Chinese New Year 2017 Celebration in Setia Alam, Shah Alam.

Themed "Home is Complete When Family Members Reunite", the celebration was held in collaboration with Astro Malaysia.

The event, which was attended by close to 4,000 guests, kicked off with an exciting acrobatic lion dance performance led by world lion dance champion Kun Seng Keng Dragon and Lion Dance Association.

Astro celebrities and MyFM deejays Emely Poon and Ngan Mei Yan were also present at the event as hosts while singers such as Geraldine Gan, Danny Koo, Nicole Lai, Apple Kho, Sharon Wong and Winnie Goh captivated the crowd with their performance.

The event was made even livelier when the hosts invited guests to participate in fun games on the elaborately decorated stage. The games included eating honeycomb biscuits while wearing a customised head-gear, lip-reading and moving beverage cans with a pair of giant chopsticks.

At the end of the games, lucky grand-prize winners went home with limited-edition SP Setia-Astro plush toys.

Other activities lined up were paper flower-making, rooster origami, tarot card reading, Chinese paper art cutting, Chinese rainbow calligraphy, dough doll-making, fortune telling and caricature drawings.

To remind guests of the fun-filled day, the "God of Prosperity" wished everyone a prosperous Year of the Fire Rooster as he gave out SP Setia's limited-edition ang pow packets while SP Setia staff in traditional Chinese outfits distributed winter melon candy, honey maltose sweets and candied haw on a stick.

SP Setia also took the opportunity to announce the winners of the Setia Back to No 1 contest, which was launched last year.

"I am exhilarated with my win. I am still reeling from my good fortune and would like to thank SP Setia for giving me a chance to own a piece of London.

"It is really a dream come true for my family and me," said Louis Tan Xin Wei, grand-prize winner of a London Battersea Power Station Apartment worth RM2.2mil (£400,000).

Meanwhile, the other 12 winners won luxury cruise trips in Asia and Europe and return trips to London's Annual Chelsea Flower Show.

The contest was open to all SP Setia property purchasers who signed their sale and purchase agreements last year.

On Feb 11, SP Setia will be having its Chinese New Year Open House at the respective project sites for the public and purchasers.

For details, call 1300132255.

Headline	Coming together as one happy family
Media Title	The Star
Date	28 January 2017
Section	NA
Page Number	NA

SP Setia Bhd deputy president and chief operating officer Datuk Wong Tuck Wai (left) and president and chief executive officer Datuk Khor Chap Jen (right) welcoming guests to the SP Setia Perfect Reunion Chinese New Year 2017 Celebration in Setia Alam, Shah Alam.

Tan (centre) receiving a mock key to his Battersea Power Station Apartment from Khor (left) and Wong.

The acrobatic lion dance performance led by world lion dance champion Kun Seng Keng Dragon and Lion Dance Association.

Headline	Coming together as one happy family
Media Title	The Star
Date	28 January 2017
Section	NA
Page Number	NA

Children learning how to make origami roosters.

SP Setia Bhd Group's top management together with Setia Back to No 1 contest winners and Astro celebrities.